F. Fee schedule

Do not send payment with your application. Once PUCO has approved your application and insurance policy information current in the system, PUCO will send an invoice for the registration fees. Once you receive the invoice, you can pay online or send a check to the payment address on the invoice.

The following fees are for informational purposes and apply to all operation types. Vehicle fees for annual renewals are based on full year rates regardless of the registration filing date. Vehicle fees for new applicants are based on the date operations begin. You are permitted to pay fees and receive tax receipts for any number of vehicles declared on the application; however, no refunds or credits will be issued once the tax receipts are issued. As a reminder, carriers who have registered their interstate operations under the federal Unified Carrier Registration Agreement (UCR) and whose UCR registration is in good standing are not required to register or pay taxes on their intrastate operations.
